

Jill Stein brings "people, planet and peace over profit" to Oxford October 3

Green Party candidate for President Dr. Jill Stein will lead a Student Town Hall next Monday, October 3, at The Lyric Oxford, 1006 Van Buren Avenue. Doors open at 6 PM, with information tables and networking opportunities, and the town hall begins at 7 PM.

Following opening remarks by Jill Stein, students will pose questions to her live. Her visit is sponsored by Popular Resistance, Mississippi Chapter, a sanctioned student activity group at Ole Miss, and the Green Party of Mississippi. More information is available at <https://www.facebook.com/events/1652762365034031/>

Jill Stein and her running mate, Ajamu Baraka (www.ajamubaraka.com), are on the ballot in Mississippi and enough other states so they statistically could win the election. Details of an October visit by Mr. Baraka to Mississippi will be announced soon.

The Stein/Baraka platform (<http://www.jill2016.com/plan>) includes a Green New Deal with millions of jobs to achieve 100% clean renewable energy by 2030; investing in public transit, sustainable agriculture, and conservation; racial justice and human rights; and establishing rights to education, health care, and jobs for all.